

6 Ways Your Voice Was Heard

As we look back on the past two years, we recognize how much volunteers, donors, members, and staff accomplished. We applaud you for all the many ways you inspire the next generation of conservationists to recreate without leaving a trace.

Defeat ATV bill that would have allowed 2-6 passenger vehicles on trails

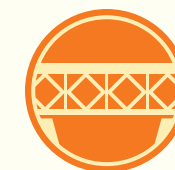

Fought to support recreational paddling on navigable waterways by providing a friend of the court legal brief in the appeal of the 1998 Brown vs. Friends of Thayer Lake case

Reduced risk of oil spills and explosions from Bakken crude oil and Canadian Tar Sands crude oil

Creation of an aquatic invasive species citizen science program to monitor backcountry waterways

Fought to stop DEC from violating Wild, Scenic and Recreational Rivers Act by allowing motorized uses on Polaris bridge

Defeat of casino development inside the Sterling Forest

The Adirondack Mountain Club (ADK) is a powerful voice protecting New York State's wild lands and waters. ADK is a nonprofit organization with 30,000 members in 27 chapters and 36 year-round staff offering programs that help people discover, play in, and protect natural places.

