

New York Invasive Species Awareness Week in the Capital District

Tuesday, July 10th:

- Science on Tap at the Albany Pump Station, 19 Quackenbush Square, Albany, 7 pm.
Join CapMo PRISM, DEC, Parks and CCE staff for a presentation on invasive species and what YOU can do to stop the spread!

Wednesday, July 11th:

- Invasive Species Exhibits at the Empire State Plaza Farmers Market, 10 am to 2 pm.

Thursday, July 12th:

- Guided invasive species walk at Washington Park, 5 pm.
Meet at the Soldiers and Sailors Monument in Washington Park at the intersection of Henry Johnson Boulevard and State Street

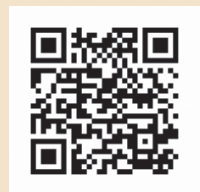

Friday, July 13th:

- iMapInvasives training at Thacher State Park,
Thacher State Park Visitor Center, 830 Thacher Park Road, Voorheesville, NY 12186, 9:30 AM – 2:00 PM, register online at <http://www.nyimapinvasives.org/Training/thatcher-state-park-2018-isaw>

Saturday, July 14th:

- Invasive species crafts at Kids Day at the Empire State Plaza, 12 pm to 5 pm

For more events near you, please visit
<https://stoptheinvasionny.com/calendar-of-events/>

Parks, Recreation and Historic Preservation

Department of Environmental Conservation